Relationships...

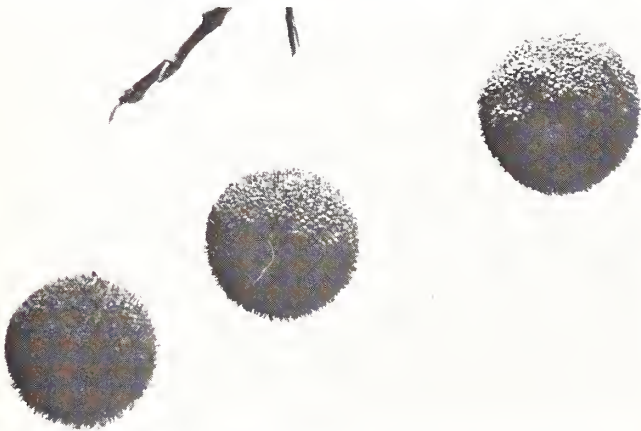

"Scholarship and spirituality are not only a compatible excellence; they are brothers who strengthen one another."

Logical and natural association between

Relationships are born

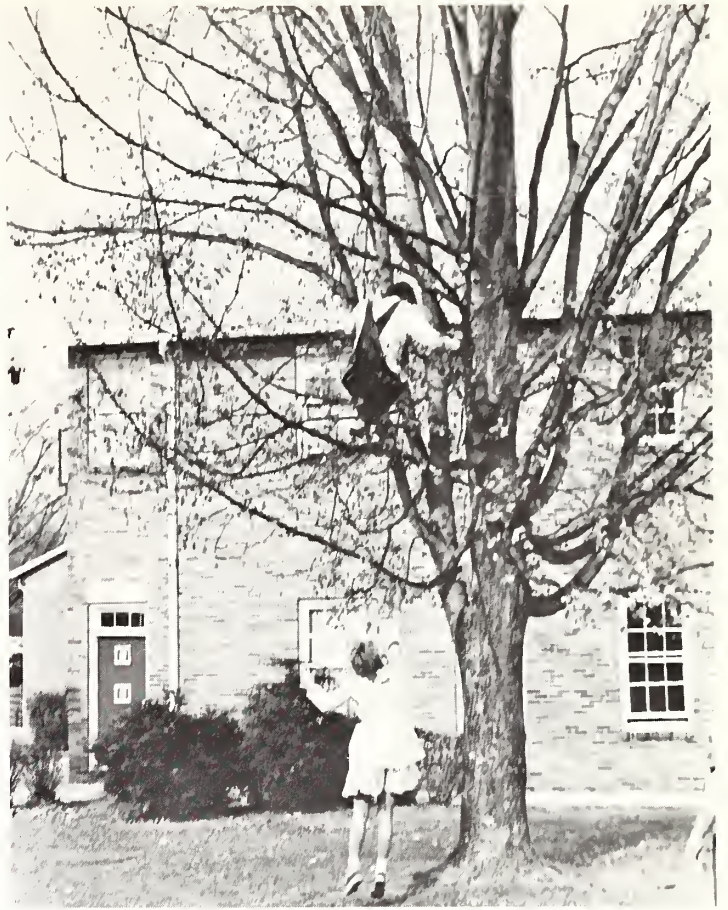

When people have things in common

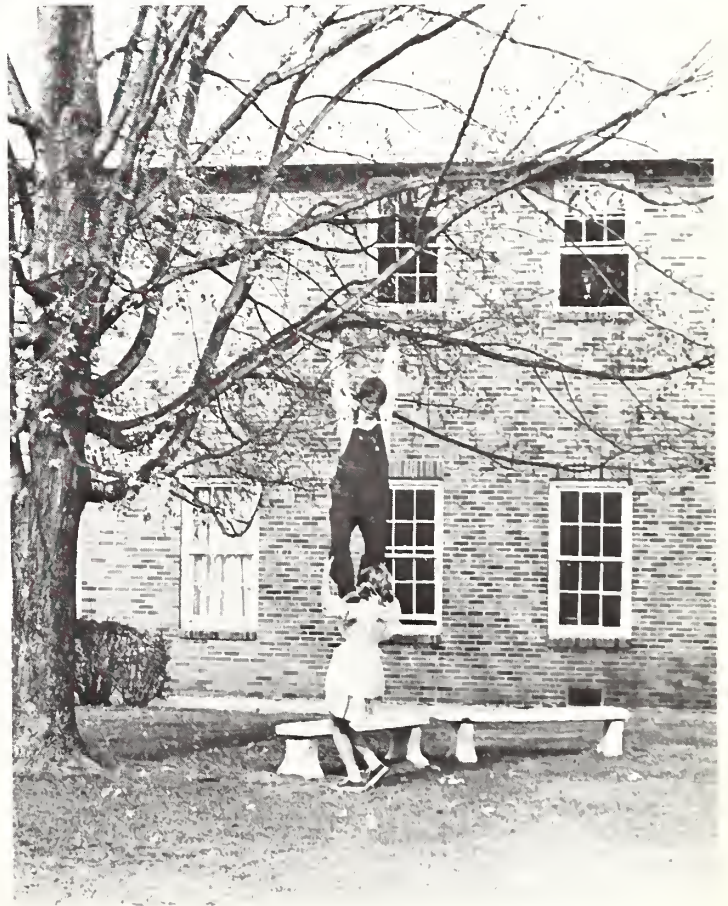

Some relationships come easy...

...Others you have to work on

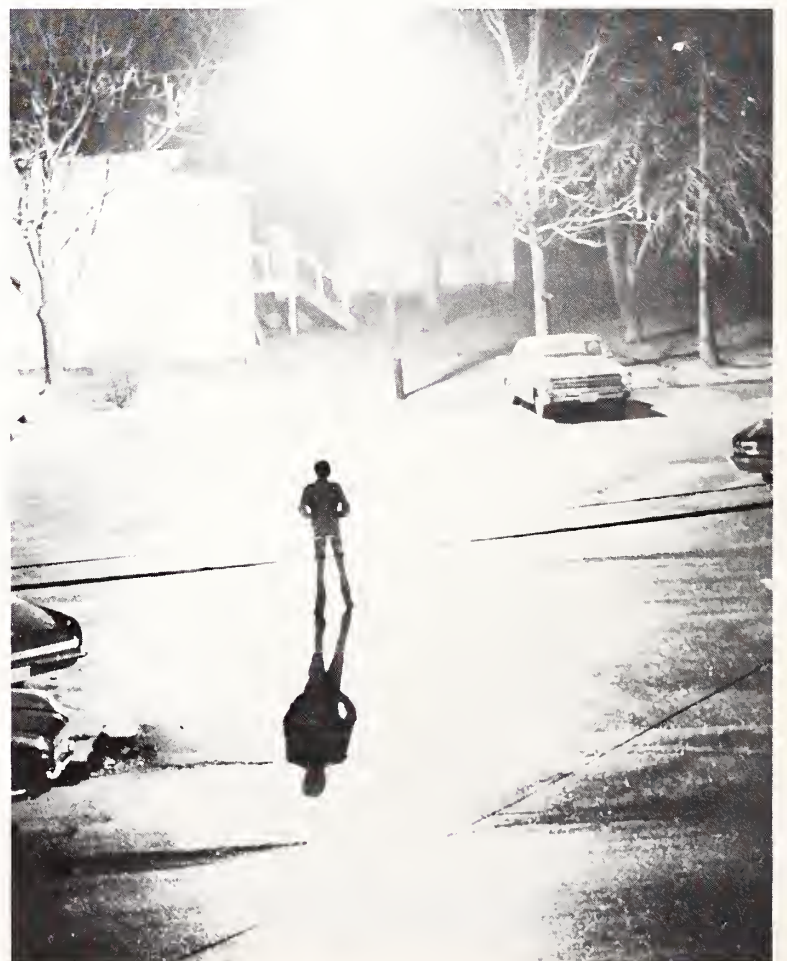

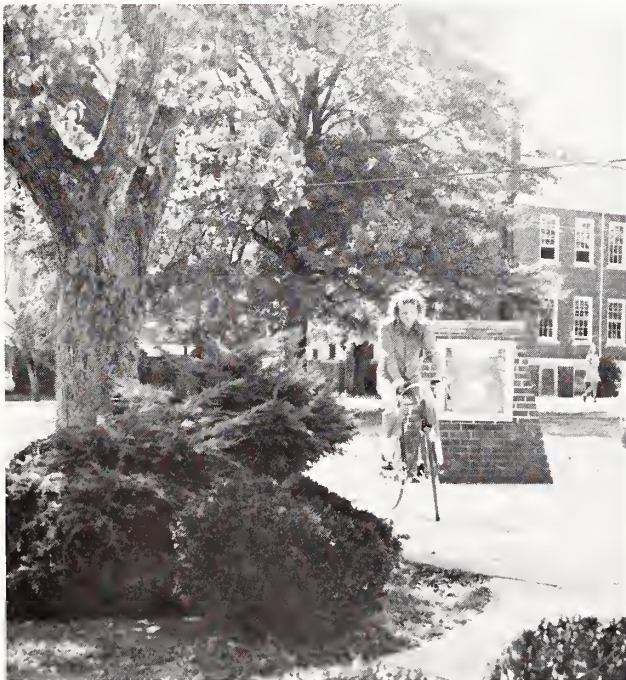

"Intelligence of mind, kindness of heart, and sincerity of soul produce beauty in any face, be it ever so ordinary or plain. These inner lights radiate a beauty so pure that it cannot be imitated or obscured."

Man is isolated until he acquires a relationship with other things...

...other men...

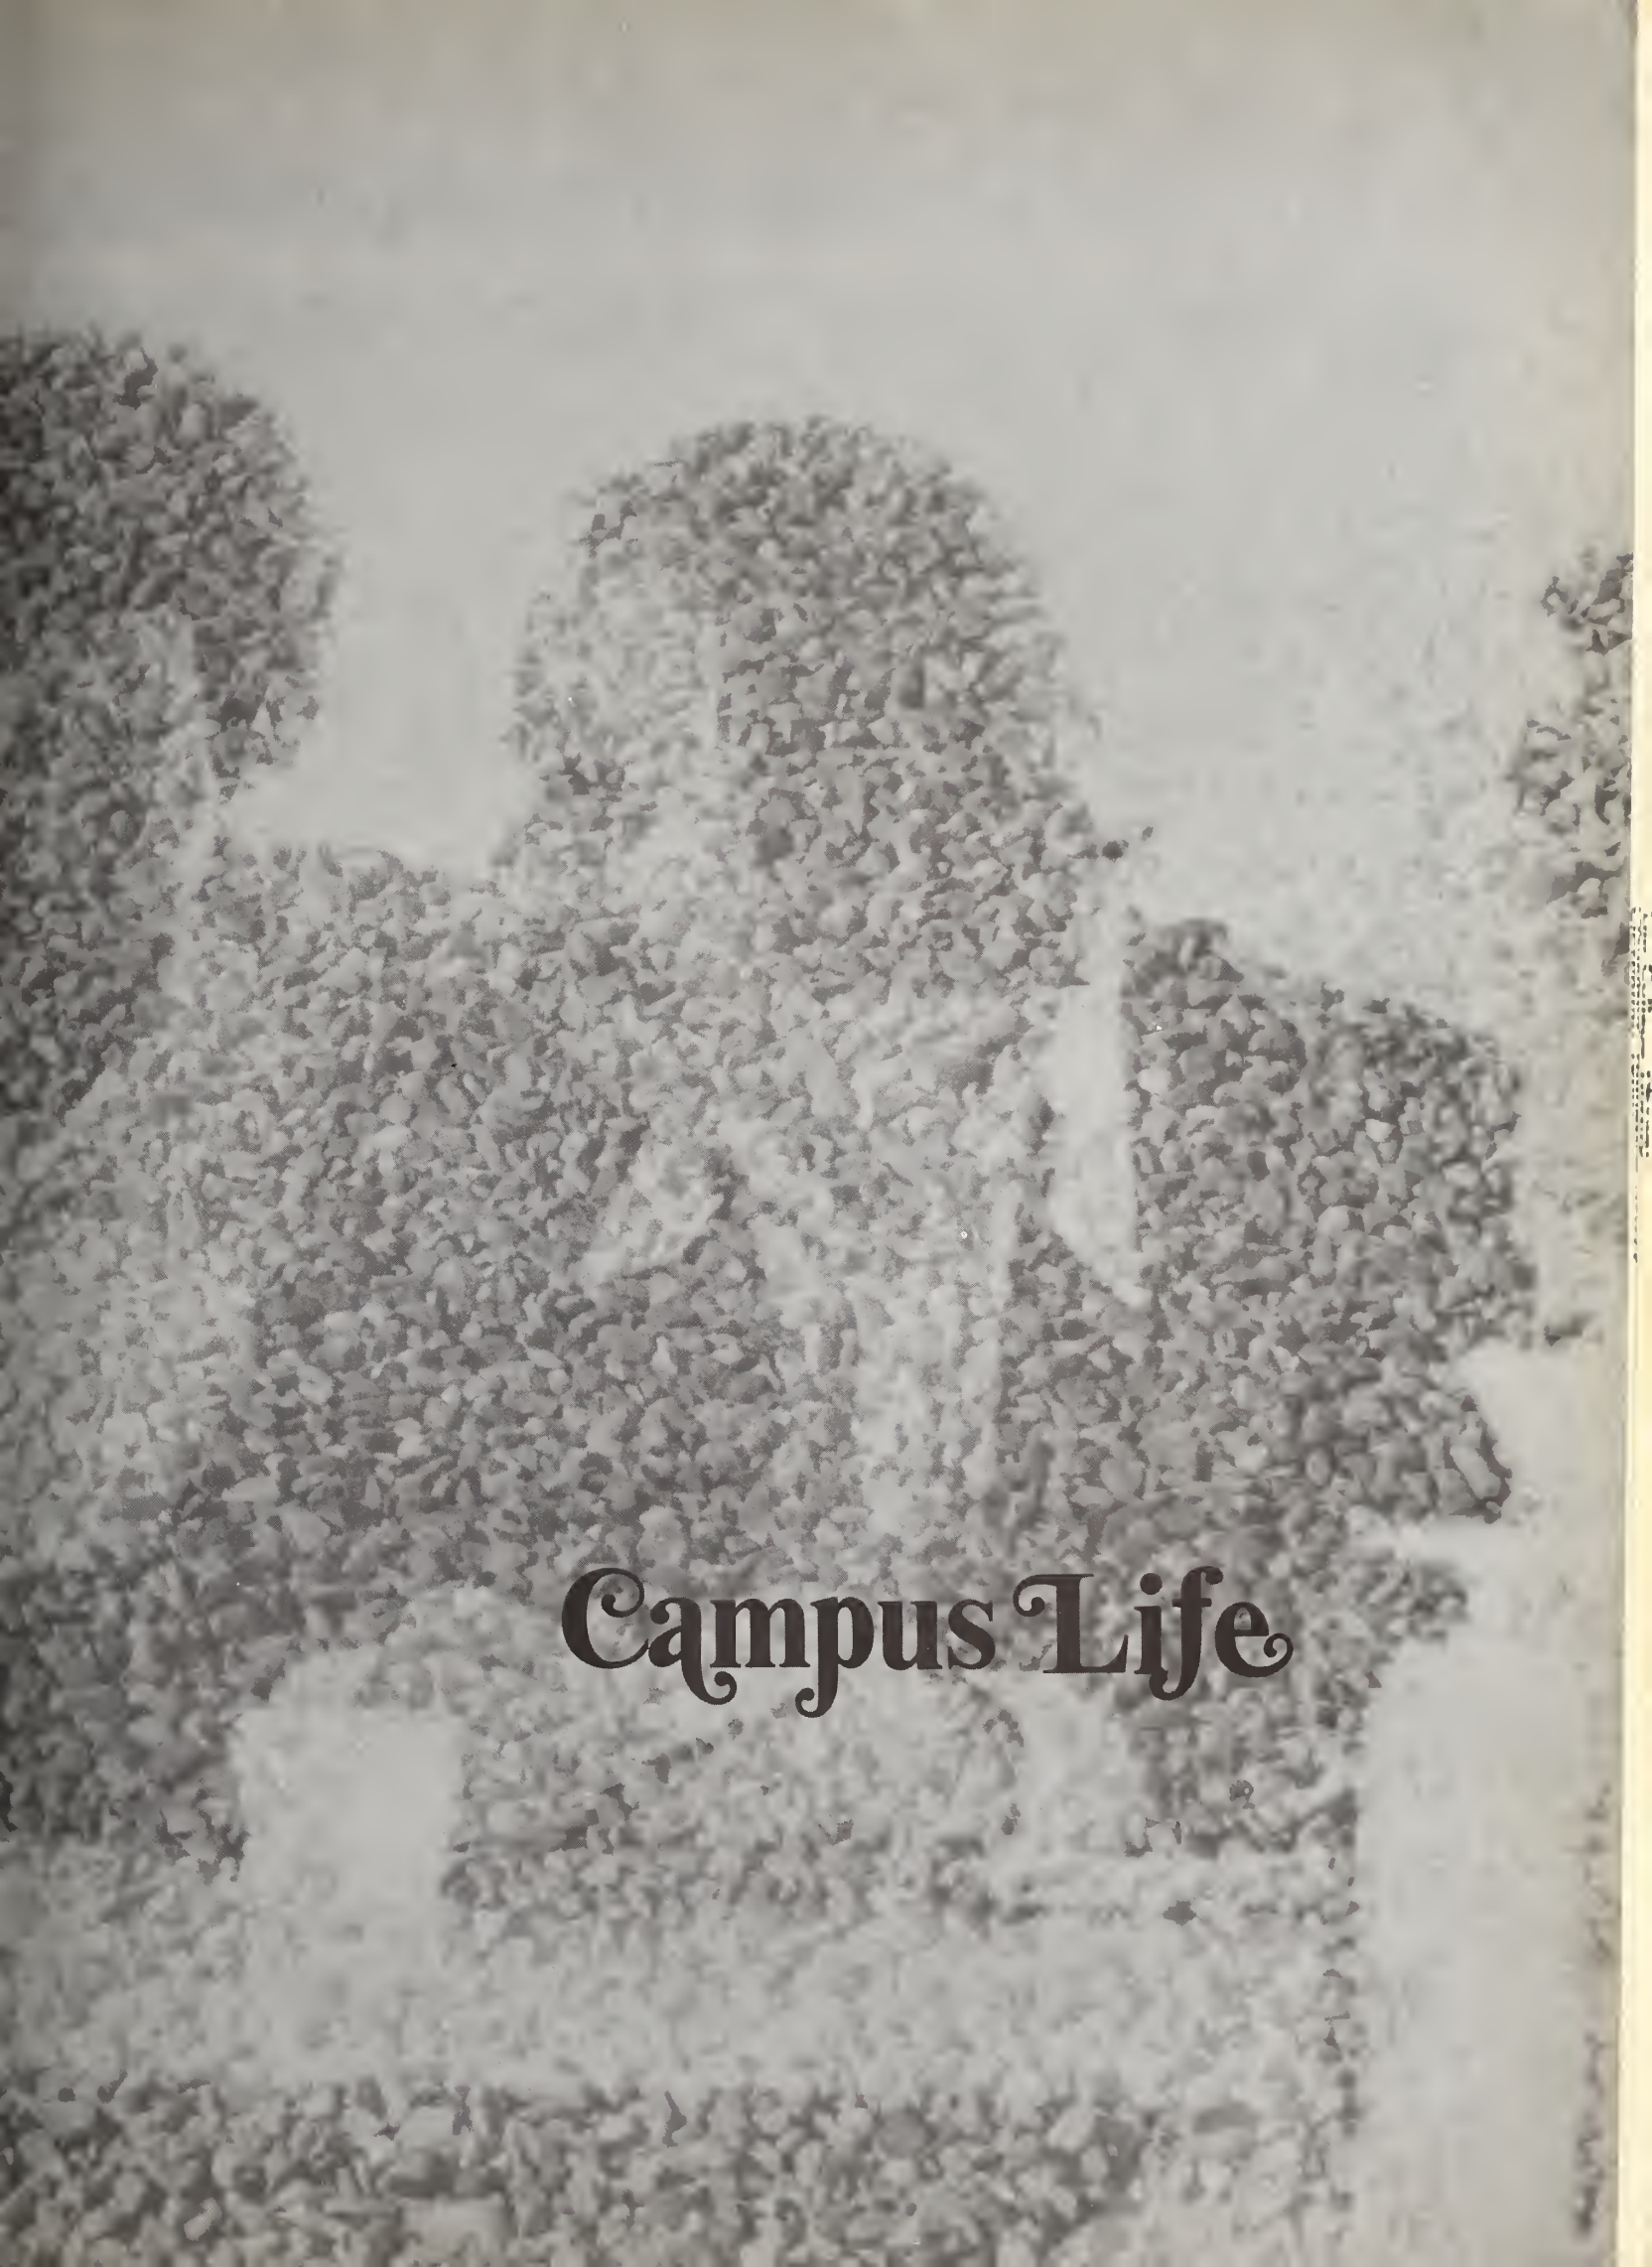

...and God.

*"As the spokes of a wheel converge
at the hub, men draw near to Christ."*

"Things are seldom as bad as we expect them to be or as pleasant as we remember them to have been."

Honors

F. J. Lee Honors went to Leonard Albert

The F. J. Lee Award originated in 1968 after Lee College developed a four-year liberal arts program. This award was designed to recognize the most outstanding graduating senior. This year's recipient is Leonard Albert, a Bible major from Cleveland, Tennessee.

Leonard has worked extensively with the Layman's program in this area and has been appointed as field representative for the Layman Ministry by the Church of God Headquarters.

Knowles receives Tharp Award

Zeno C. Tharp, past president of Lee College is the man for whom the Tharp award is named. It is given to the senior who is likely to make the most outstanding contribution to the general church. Larry Knowles who has established himself as an outstanding figure on campus was chosen by the faculty to receive this award. A Biblical Education major, Larry is from Cleveland, Tennessee, and plans to be a minister in the church.

Departmental Awards went to

Nine students were selected to receive the 1975 Departmental Awards by the faculty of Lee College. The nine seniors awarded were chosen on the basis of outstanding achievement in their particular area of study. One student is nominated to receive the award by faculty members of each department. They then have to be approved by the entire faculty of Lee College. Virginia Willis, Behavioral Sciences and Myra Strickland, Natural Sciences were not available for their photographs to be taken.

Parade of Favorites highlights events

The Vindagua sponsored the thirteenth annual Parade of Favorites.

The week's activities began on Monday, February 17 at the home of President and Mrs. Charles Conn where an informal social was presented so that the "Favorites" could become acquainted with the judges. Wednesday night the girls were individually interviewed by the judges, who asked them a variety of questions. Thursday and Friday were spent in rehearsal and final preparation so that the all important Saturday night would be a success. Judging this year's "Favorites" were: Ken Rayborn, Chairman; Kathy Simmons, Vivian Turpin and Marion Cook.

Parade of Favorites began long before the week of February 17. Many hours were spent in planning and making the necessary designs so that Favorites week would go as smoothly as possible.

Director Chuck Lovelace and Faculty Sponsor Paul Conn worked together directing the efforts of the Favorites and others who put the pageant together. Miss Jannuth Gatlin, house manager, was in charge of seating and programs while Debbie Bilbo, social coordinator planned the teas and socials.

Susan Barrows, stage manager guided in the building of props and arranging the sets for each girl the night of the performance. Her crew included Bob Ball, Steve Black, Debi Bridges, Rusty Green, Dennis Jones, Steve McCullar, Terry Pyeatt, Kim Ricks, Roy Stone, Walter Mauldin and Todd Ellis.

Miss Diane Wienckowski was in charge of Publicity. Tuxedos worn in the pageant were furnished by Eaves Tuxedo Rental of Cleveland.

Academics

President Charles W. Conn

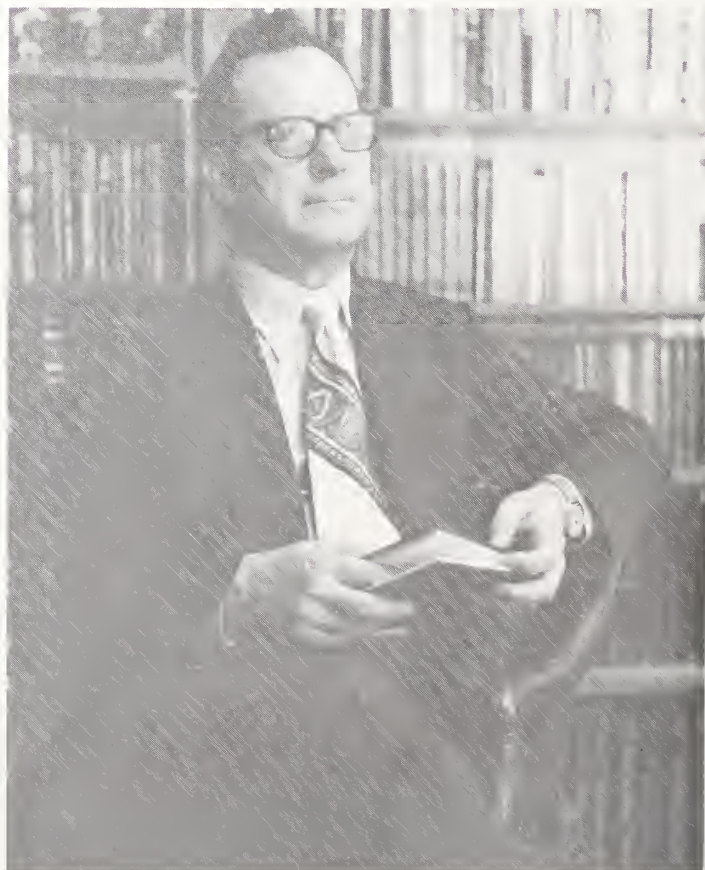

The 1974-'75 school term marked the beginning of President Charles W. Conn's third consecutive two-year term as chief executive of the school.

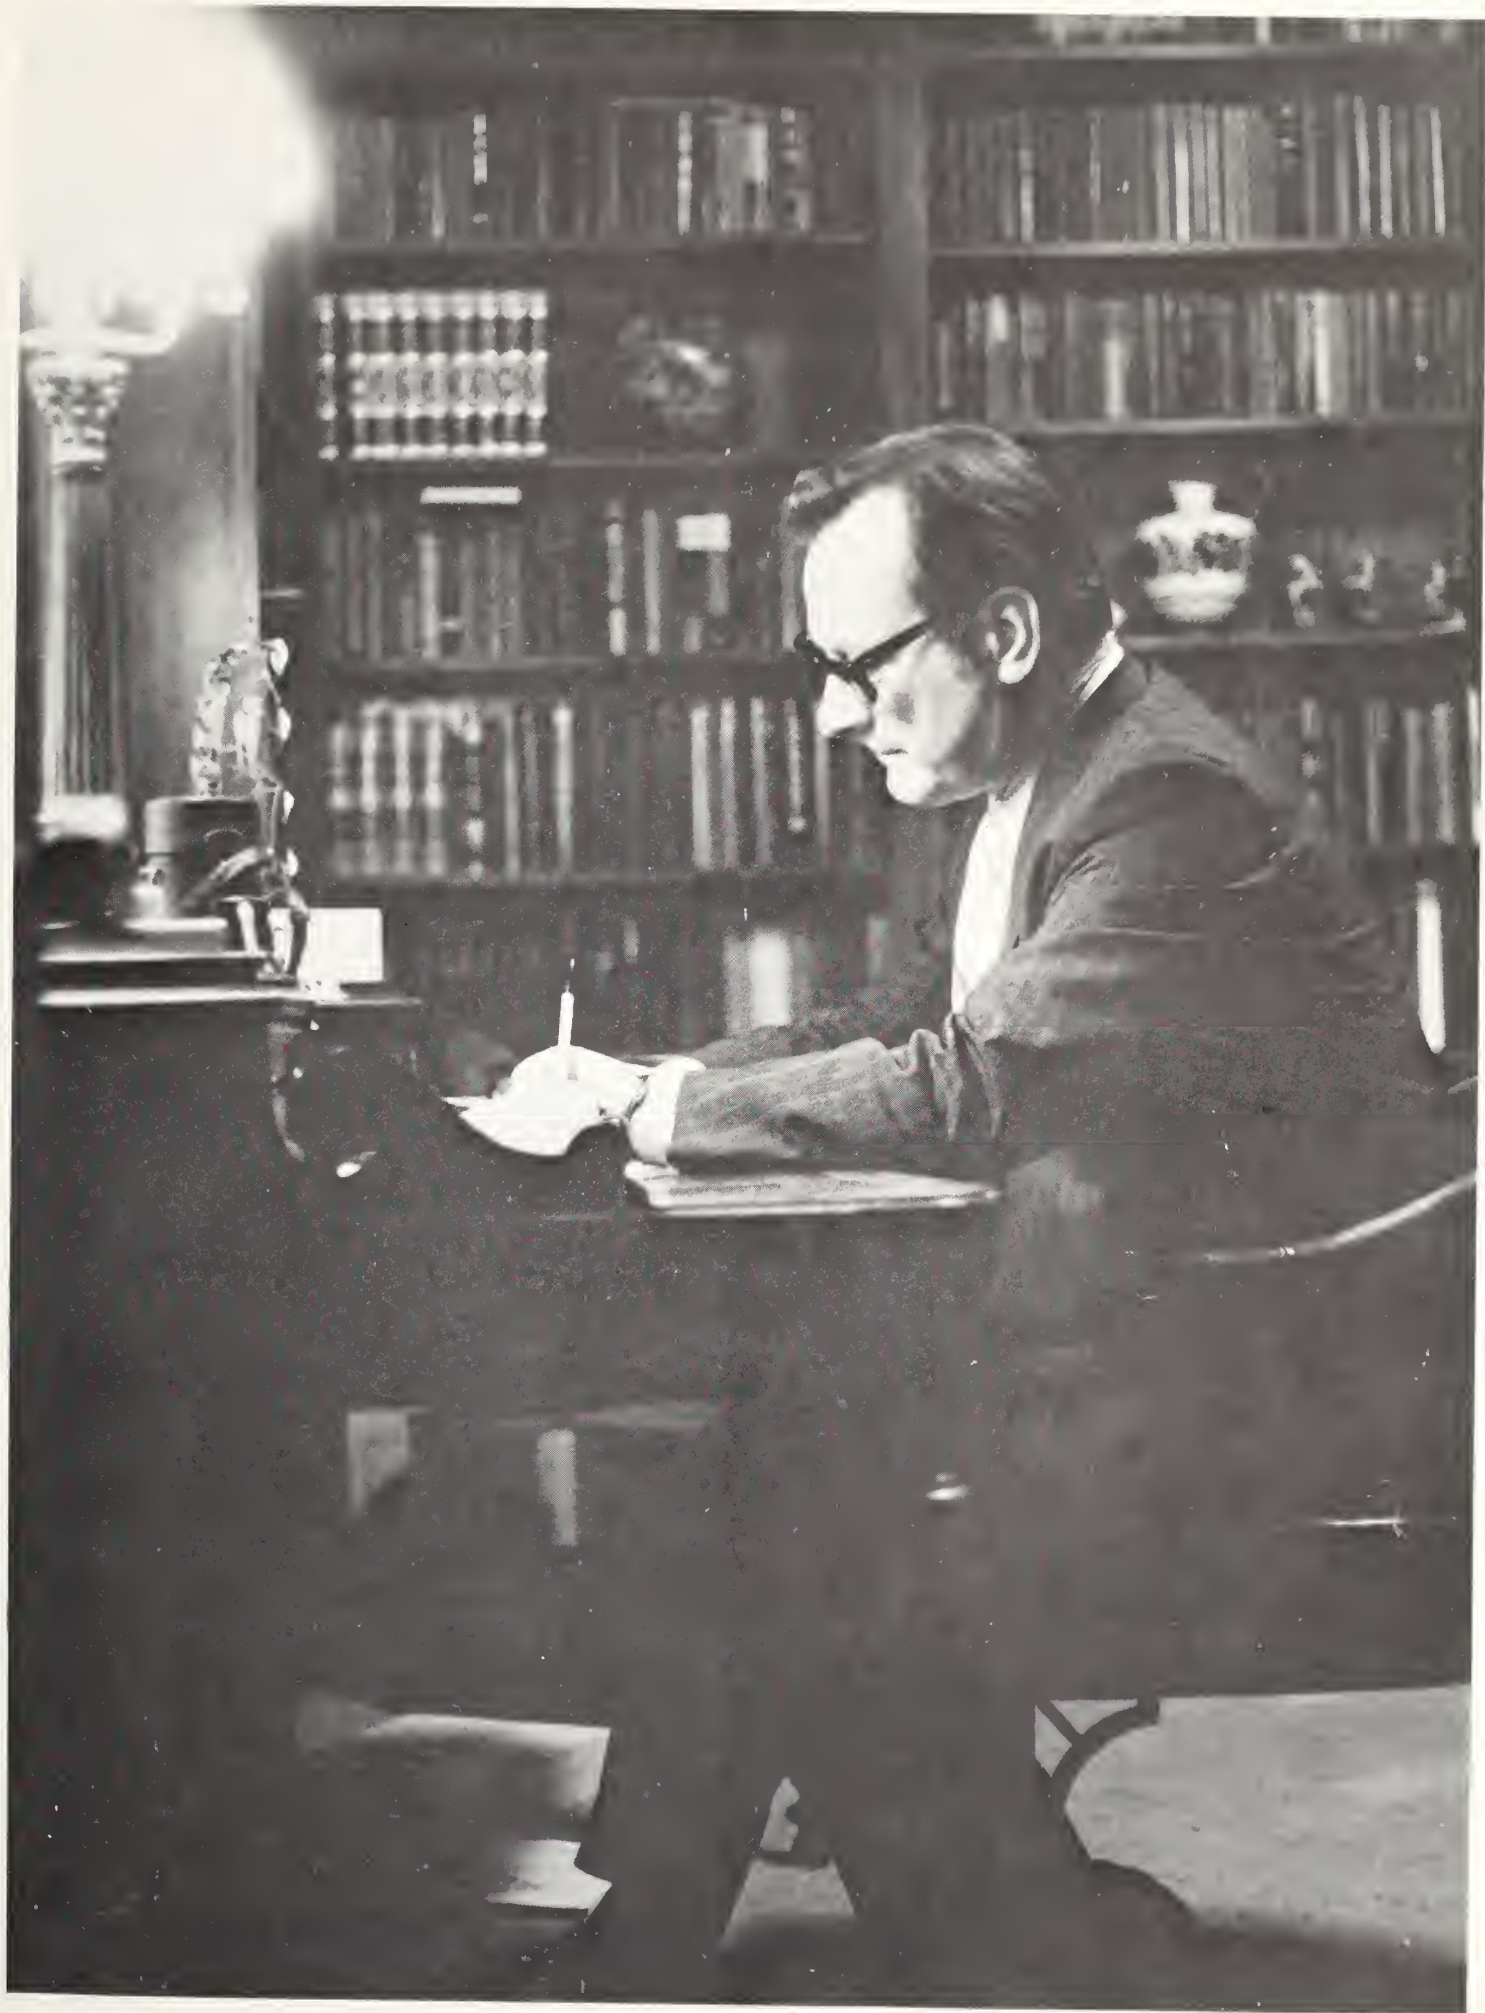

Just as presidential activity was dominated by the successful efforts toward reaffirmation of accreditation last year, Dr. Conn's energies this year have focused predominantly on a single area: the development of outside financial resources for the school.

Throughout the year President Conn directed the Lee College Center Campaign, a fund-raising drive in the community which sought over 400,000 dollars for the building of Lee's proposed new auditorium.

Additionally, President Conn has conceived and spearheaded a drive to build the school's endowment funds through direct gifts from individuals and state councils.

With an apparent stabilizing of student enrollment at the 1100 level, administrative leadership finally set after two years of changes, and the academic program safely through the reaffirmation process, President Conn continued in 1974-'75 to provide strong leadership in areas of the school needing his hand.

Board of Directors

The Lee College Board of Directors is the body selected by the Church of God to make policy and provide top-level decision-making for the school. The board, consisting of ministers and laymen chosen by the General Executive Committee, meets quarterly.

Reverend Ralph E. Williams, state overseer of the Church of God in Florida, was named this year to a new two-year term as chairman of the board.

Dean of the College

Delton L. Alford assumed the post of Dean of the College on January 1 of 1975. Dr. Alford, who came to Lee College as a faculty member in 1962, had previously served as chairman of the department of music and fine arts and as dean of the Division of Arts and Sciences.

Alford, who recently directed the institutional self-study by which Lee was reaffirmed as an accredited college, holds the Ph.D. degree from Florida State University. As dean of the college, he directs the entire academic program of the school.

The academic council comprises the top-level advisory board on all matters of academic interest. Chaired by the dean of the college, the academic council considers issues and makes policy on matters which overlap the various divisions and departments and are of potential application to the entire school.

Administrative Council

The administrative council is an advisory body chaired by the President of the college which considers issues and advises with the president on all matters of school policy which he brings to them, ranging all the way from questions about the student code to consideration of the school's general financial structure.

All members of the academic council also serve by virtue of office on the administrative council. Additional members are David Painter (director of financial affairs), Wayne Chambers (director of development), and Paul Duncan (dean of students).

Vikings Compile Another Winning Record

Awards and honors were heaped upon the Lee College Vikings in their 1975 basketball season. Dale Hughes, who led the Vikings to a 22-6 record and N.A.I.A. bid, was named S.C.A.C. coach of the year. Larry Carpenter and T-Bone Sanford made the N.C.C.A.A. All-American Team and were also named, along with Danny Moore, to the All-S.C.A.C. Team. The league rebounding title was grabbed by Sanford who averaged 13.8 rebounds per game.

Coach Hughes has established a better than 80 percent winning percentage with over 250 victories to his credit. His teams have won the S.C.A.C. regular season 7 out of 9 years, the tournament 8 out of 9 years, and two national titles in the N.C.C.A.A. With all but one Viking returning to next year's squad, there is reason to expect even greater accomplishments.

Vikings Made First Trip to NAIA Tournament

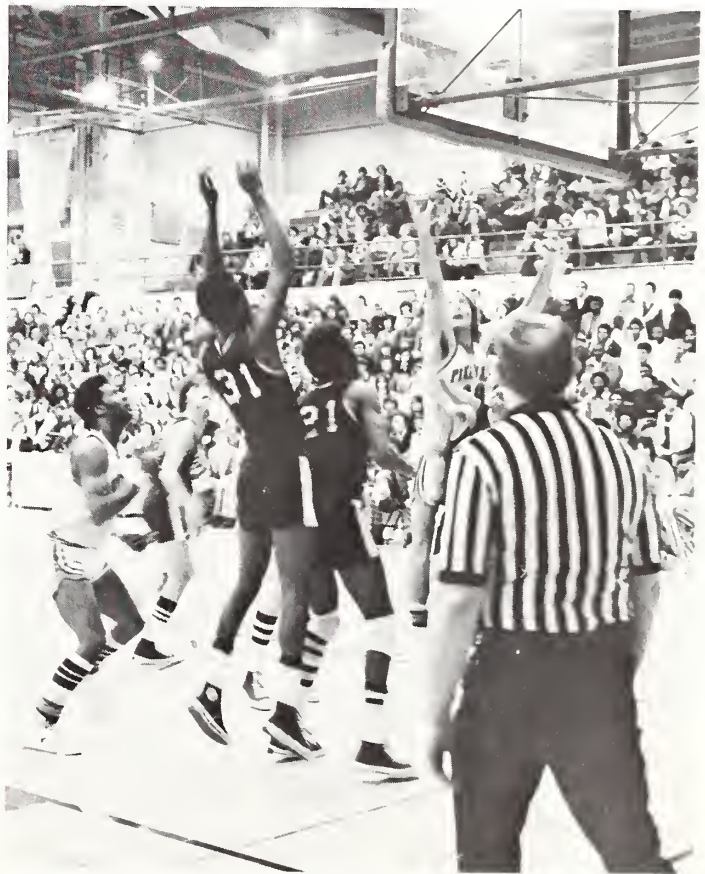

The Vikings, having easily dominated the S.C.A.C. since its conception, moved on to bigger and better things. This year's bid to the N.A.I.A. tournament was without doubt the biggest accomplishment yet for the Vikings. This year of great achievement was somewhat blemished by a one point upset loss to Covenant College in the S.C.A.C. Tourney. This loss marked the first time in S.C.A.C.'s nine year history that Lee did not come away the winner. By beating Bryan the very next night, the Vikings were consoled by qualifying for the N.A.I.A. Lee's hopes did not stay alive long as they were picked off 92-80 by the talented Pikeville Bears in the Cleveland-hosted District 24 Tournament. Kentucky State, the nation's top ranked small college team, went on to win the tournament over Pikeville.

Carpenter

Larry Carpenter concluded his third year as a Viking player establishing what has become a long list of impressive credentials. This year he became Lee's first ever representative on the first squad of the N.C.C.A.A. All-American team. Throughout the season he compiled an 18 plus scoring average, 50 percent field goal percentage, and averaged over nine rebounds per game. Carpenter, a six foot five inch native of Middletown, Ohio, has been on the All-S.C.A.C. team for the past three years, being named MVP for the conference this year. The MVP award was his fifth such award of the year. Other awards came in various tournaments throughout the season, Lee Invitational, Cleveland Holiday Classic, and the Bethel Invitational Tournaments.

Captain Sanford Completes Four

"T-Bone" has been a chant heard frequently at any Lee College basketball game. It is a nickname that belongs to Theodore Sanford, the six foot seven inch center of the Vikings. Batting down shots has been Sanford's trademark and he has electrified crowds with this specialty during his four years in the Viking uniform. But that's not all he can do. Besides blocking 12 shots in one game, 121 in a season, and 331 in his career, Sanford became the ninth all-time scorer with a 1,059 total. During his time on the squad, Sanford has helped to give the Vikings a 79-19 record. To top off his honors, T-Bone was named to the second squad of the N.C.C.A.A. All-American team this year.

Vikings added three sports

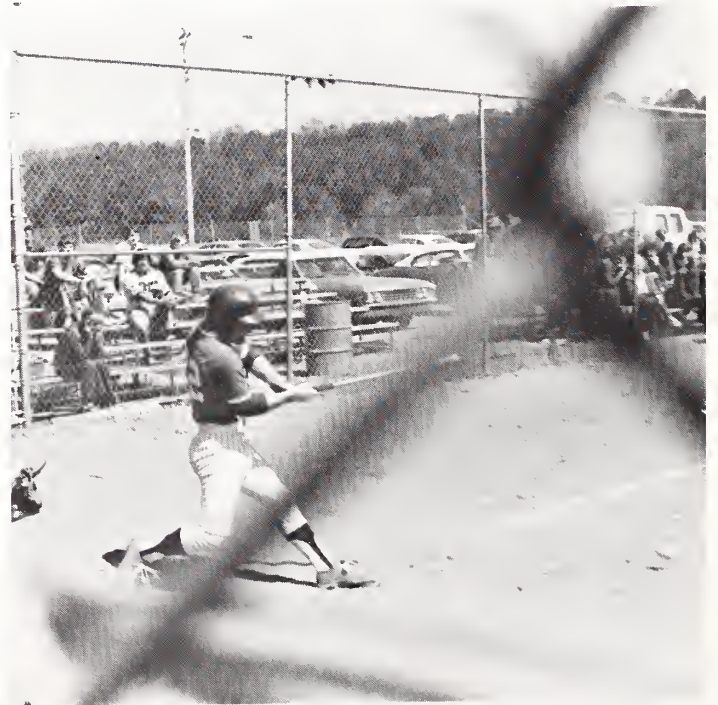

Three new sports were introduced into the Viking Athletic Department this year: baseball, cross-country and tennis. To help with the coaching duties of the expanding department, Earl Rowan, a coach of eight years experience in the Bradley School System, was recruited as head Viking baseball coach and head tennis coach. A tough 22 game schedule, consisting of eleven double-headers, proved to be a substantial challenge to the young baseball team. Behind talent such as Larry Carpenter, a pitcher and shortstop and Gary Gill, an outfielder and 1974 try-out for the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Vikings were off to a hopeful beginning. With the apt coaching abilities of Coach Rowan and the young and developing Viking talent, there is good reason to expect impressive accomplishments in the seasons ahead.

Intramural football

With the crisp tones of the quarterback calling signals and the crunching sounds of bodies and bones colliding on the scrimmage line, Lee's M.C.A.A. intramural football season swung into action. The annual Freshmen versus Upperclassmen encounter got things underway in a game at old Bradley High, the Freshmen bowing in a 41-0 defeat. As the regular season picked up momentum the two powerhouse teams, Upperclassmen and Vindagua gradually emerged as the dominant contenders for the tournament title. In Second place Upperclassmen, with a 9-2 record were also tournament hopefuls. Rounding out the season standings were Chess Club, Sophomores, Freshmen II and Freshmen I respectively.

Due to darkness, an overtime was not possible and a rematch game was set. Taking suspense down to the wire, the Upperclassmen, led by quarterback Chip Pace, gained the tournament victory over Vindagua with a 31-26 sudden death overtime decision, with the winning touchdown coming after it was too dark to see who was carrying the ball.

All-Star Quarterback Gary Gill looks for an open receiver.

Great rivalries always seem to bring out the best in college athletics and no better example can be found than in the annual Optimist Bowl Classic between the intramural football All-Stars of Lee College and Temple College of Chattanooga, Tennessee. The Lee stars prevailed for the second consecutive year to post a solid 29-6 win in the game played at Cleveland High. Led by the splendid running and passing of quarterback Gary Gill, Lee wasted no time in establishing dominance. A psyched-up Lee defense produced several turn-overs, including a fumble recovery and two intercepted passes, which were in turn made good by an aggressive offense to put the game away early in the second half.

Seniors take Intramural

Intramural basketball finals were close and exciting with the Seniors becoming the champions after a hard fought season. The Alumni squad won the regular season with a 10-0 record but was not eligible for tournament play because they didn't have student status. Tournament action saw the Upperclassmen work their way to the finals beating Ministers, International Club and the Freshmen. The Seniors, who finished second in regular season, rolled past Faculty-Staff, Chi and PFC to meet Upperclassmen.

In the tension-filled final game the Seniors were the victors, handing the Upperclassmen a 67-56 defeat. Ed Foddrill, the league's leading scorer, was the high point man for the game with 34, ensuring the Seniors of the 1975 Intramural basketball championship.

Every fall the girls of WCAA take to the field and square-off for the rugged competition of women's intramural football. The Greeks for the second year in a row, fought off the charges of Freshmen I and Freshmen II to become the girls champion. The final game, a 35-13 win by the Greeks over the Freshmen II, was highlighted by a noteworthy offensive display of two touchdown runs by Jean Tillery. The game left the Greeks undefeated for the second straight season.

The charming Ladies of Lee were musical ambassadors, creating an atmosphere of excitement as they traveled to various parts of the United States. Conducted by Roosevelt Miller, the Ladies have maintained the fine tradition established over the years. Their performances communicate the good news of Christ to their audiences and point them to a knowledge of His truths. Their future plans include a tour of Europe which will take them to Moscow, by way of Finland, Sweden, Denmark and Copenhagen.

Miss Susan Johnson was chosen as the "Sweetheart of Alpha Gamma Chi." Chi contributed to the campus and community by sponsoring a donkey basketball game, and hosting children from the "Home for Children" for a weekend. Their annual Chi cruise left campus couples with pleasurable memories of an unforgettable evening. A weekend invasion in Birmingham, Alabama, was a high point in their various religious activities.

S G A Experiences Successful Year

S.G.A. members get a first hand look at the governing process.

Student Government represented the Lee student body in various capacities this year. S.G.A. Seminars were held involving representatives, class, Supreme Justices, sponsors, committee chairmen, and special guest speakers. Things such as Parliamentary Procedure, the Constitution, expectations of S.G.A. from a student and a faculty point of view, were discussed. Student Government was also in charge of Homecoming, and all the activities that accompany it.

Bill Nichols served as S.G.A. president first semester.

T.A.C.T. is committed to Christian training to induce spiritual and educational growth.

Randy Cornell gives instruction in the teaching process.

Training Association for Christian Teaching

T.A.C.T.'s Activities include week-end travel seminars, and local seminars. Every member of T.A.C.T. is a member of a research committee. There are seven committees: public relations, secretarial, publications, audio visuals, music, recreation and resource. Randy Hamilton serves T.A.C.T. as president.

T.A.C.T. members have sponsored several seminars used to present special techniques and methods for presenting the gospel.

Yearbook staff

Many long and hard hours were spent in the completion of the 1974-75 annual. This year's Vindagua takes a look at relations that are formed and built upon at Lee College. Relationships that form various characteristics and personalities of our college community have been emphasized.

Chuck Lovelace, this year's editor worked diligently to meet the book's deadlines, working with his section editors to put their thoughts into print. He wore a path from the Vindagua Office to the Publishing House where layouts were printed and corrections were made so that each student could receive his copy.

Sports Editor, Ken Lee, reads over his latest article.

Second semester, the CLARION continued under the leadership of Dick Ford and Tim Chastain.

The Clarion staff worked hard this year to report news and events. The position of Editor changed hands at the turn of the semester and saw Dick Ford and Tim Chastain sharing the duties. Each issue took an extra amount of work to reach deadline and get the paper out on time. All the campus events such as Homecoming, Parade of Favorites and various sports events were given special attention so that the readers were well informed of everything that was taking place. This year's staff included: Sports Editor, Ken Lee and Reporters, James Anderson, Frank Crank, Don Gabbard, Dave Rathbone and F. Lee Ring.

As I look back on the year my thoughts are filled with memories that are too numerous to mention. The 1975 VINDAGUA is a very devastating part of those memories. Many hours of hard work were put into this book so that your memories could be recorded for you to look back on now and in years to come.

I am in debt to many people for their help in producing the 1975 VINDAGUA: To my sponsor Paul Conn who has been a friend not only this year but always. To President Charles W. Conn for allowing me to use his maxims taken from "The Pointed Pen" to tie the book's theme together. To Dick Ford and his staff who worked tirelessly to print all the pictures. To Charles McKinney who worked a lot of overtime so that the book could be printed. And most of all to my beautiful wife without whom the VINDAGUA would never have been finished. She worked hand in hand with me through approaching deadlines, all my studies, Parade of Favorites and gave me a beautiful daughter who makes all the bad times seem good.

I am also in debt to you for allowing me to make your memories become a pleasant part of my memories.
